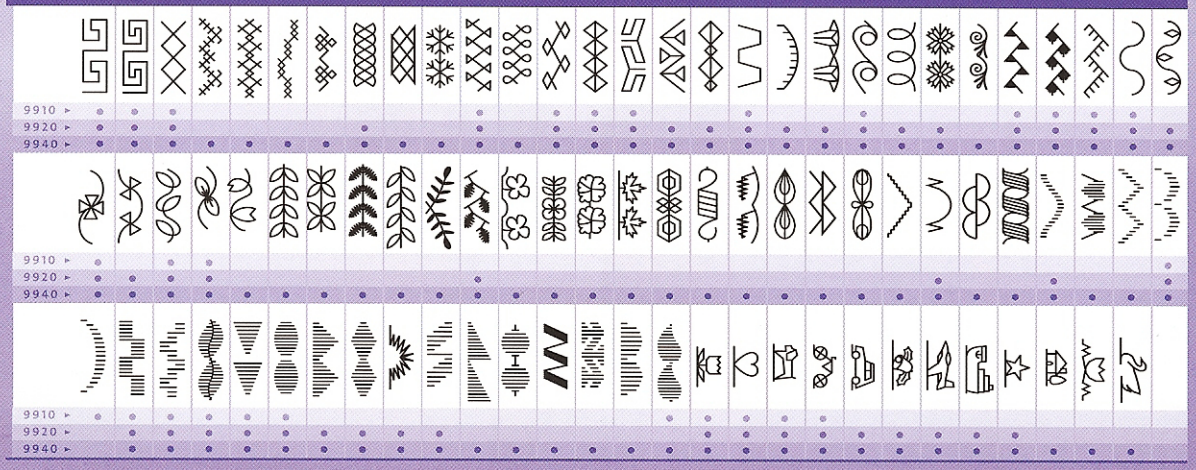
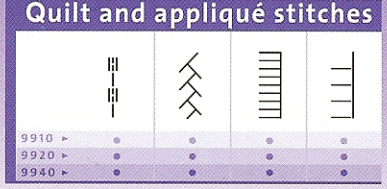
An amazing stitch repertoire

Utility stitches	9910	9920	9940
Straight stitch – The all-purpose stitch with a length of up to 5 mm and 24 needle positions.	•	•	•
Straight stitch with automatic back-tack at the start of each seam.		•	•
Basting stitch – Basting by machine, the fast way to your first fitting.			•
Stretch triple straight stitch – For reinforcing heavily strained seams.	•	•	•
Stem stitch – For outstanding topstitching.	•	•	•
Zigzag stitch – Indispensable for overcasting seams, appliqué and patchwork (up to 7 mm wide).	•	•	•
Elastic blind hem – Invisible hem finish on stretch fabrics.	•	•	•
Blind hem – The fast, invisible way to secure seams. Also used as decorative finish on fine fabrics.	•	•	•
Multiple stitch zigzag – For overcasting knit fabrics and sewing on elastic.	•	•	•
Automatic button sewing – Sew on buttons in seconds.	•	•	•
Overedge stitch – For stretchy seams on non-fraying materials.	•	•	•
Decorative overedge stitch – Sews and finishes fine, stretchy fabrics in one simple step.	•	•	•
Triple zigzag stitch – Highly elastic stitch, ideal for sportswear and swimsuits.	•	•	•
Decorative triple zigzag stitch – For decorative seams or topstitching on stretch fabrics.	•	•	•
Feather stitch – For joining fabric pieces with a decorative hemstitching effect.	•	•	•
Thorn stitch – For decorative, flat seams when joining fabric pieces.	•	•	•
Stretch overedge stitch – Sews and finishes elastic materials in one operation.	•	•	•
Open overedge stitch – Sews and finishes non-elastic materials in one operation.	•	•	•
Closed overedge stitch – For overcasting and finishing knit fabrics.	•	•	•
Decorative elastic stitch – A beautiful, elastic seam finish for neck and sleeve bands.	•	•	•
Honeycomb stitch – For sewing on elastic, smocking or gathering the easy way.	•	•	•
Bartack program – For automatically reinforcing and securing seam ends.	•	•	•
Darning program – Automatic darning of holes and other damaged areas.	•	•	•

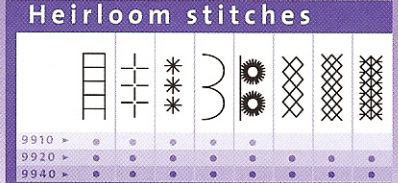
Decorative stitches



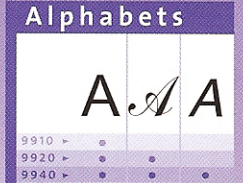
Quilt and appliqué stitches



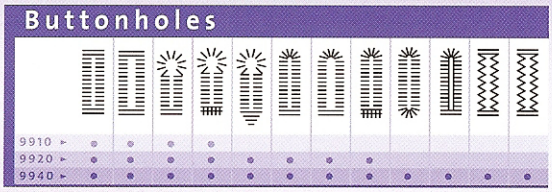
Heirloom stitches

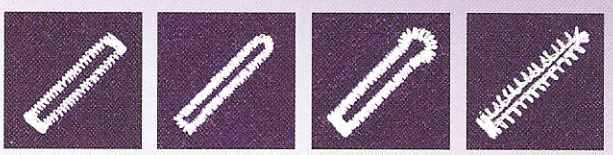


Alphabets



Buttonholes





Professional buttonholes – sewn in a flash!